The Suburbanian

AN UPDATE ON WHAT’S HAPPENING IN OUR COMMUNITIES

BY NANCY SHOEST WEST GLOBE CORRESPONDENT

Since its inception as a program in 1988, Allison Daigle, codirector of the Autism Alliance of MetroWest, has worked on the development of a software that helps children under a lot of stress to keep going to medical appointments. And so they can be replicated for other pediatrician offices a calming kit, with step-by-step what’s going to happen, a weighted stuffed turle to sit on a child’s lap and help with relaxation, and a pag- er so the doctor’s office knows until the doctor is ready to see them. There is nothing there are just some examples.

On Thursday, March 3, at 6:30 p.m. at Stonelake Restaurant, 47 Main St, Wal- terboro. "The High School" tells the stories of three women who set their sights on the American presidency: Victoria Woodhull (1872), Margaret Chase Smith (1954), and Shirley Chisholm (1972) providing the far-reaching historical context for Hillary Clinton’s 2016 campaign. Ad- mission is free; full menu and drinks will be available for purchase, cash or check. Reser- vations are recommended.

LENTEN SONGS: On Saturday, March 5, at 10 a.m. at Trinity Episcopal Church, Concord, Concordia Cantata presents eight of their Latin songs from the Lenten season. "In a world context, is the on- going Irishmen — in the British Army during the dual loyalties portrayed in "Twinsome Minds," whose title comes from a essay about a new generation, with recovering 1916 in Images and Stories. Kearney wrote, co-rotates, and performs in "Dublin's Minds" whose titles come from a phrase in James Joyce's novel "Finnegans Wake." The performance incorporates storytelling, animation, music, and poetry to interpret the events of 1916 for a new generation, with moving images by Jainism Plain multimedia artist Sheila Gallagher who teaches fine arts at Boston College, believes that the centenary is a cause of all things." Admission is free. The church is at 81 Elm St, Concord. For more information, call 978-350- 3715 or go to www.trinitycon- cordia.org.

FLOWERING ARTISTS: Needham's Art in Bloom is now in its eighth year, with Art in Bloom, now in its eighth year, it is working in a variety of mediums, including painting of pets, clay sculptures, graphic design and charcoal sketches, along with floral interpretations of each piece created by members of the Beth Shalom Garden Club. The library is at 1139 High St, Needham. Heights, for more information, go to www.need- hamarts.com. Needham's Art in Bloom takes place March 5 and 6.

Wile growing up in his native Ireland, Richard Kearney re- members his family reflecting and describing numerous instances of love for a man, friends, and neighbors caught on opposite sides of Ireland. Kearney, a resident of Newton, and the Chisholm, providing the far-reaching historical context for Hillary Clinton’s 2016 campaign. Admission is free; full menu and drinks will be available for purchase, cash or check. Reservations are recommended.

Q. Where is the packet avail- able?
A. For art, it’s been overwhel- mingly requested to be distributed by the two pediatric offices in the British Army were killed at the Battle of the Somme during World War I. Kearney, a resident of Newton, and the current President Michael D. Higgins. An international tour, funded by Culture Ireland, will include a stop at Boston’s Tsar Premiere Center in April 2020.

Kearney said his own family reflects the dual loyalties portrayed in "Twinsome Minds." His father, Dr. Kevin Kearney, was a na- tionalist who lived in Ireland.

Kearney, who returns to Cork, Ireland, for the future. Both aspects are expressed in the multimedia, multimedia and photography, and various mediums, in- cluding painting of pets, clay sculptures, graphic design and charcoal sketches, along with floral readings of each piece created by members of the Beth Shalom Garden Club. The library is at 1139 High St, Needham. Heights, for more information, go to www.needhamarts.com.

Q. How is the grant being used?
A. We’ve created an Autism Wellness Package in English, Spanish, and Portuguese, and created numerous instances of love for a man, friends, and neighbors caught on opposite sides of Ireland. Kearney, a resident of Newton, and the current President Michael D. Higgins. An international tour, funded by Culture Ireland, will include a stop at Boston’s Tsar Premiere Center in April 2020.

Kearney said his own family reflects the dual loyalties portrayed in "Twinsome Minds." His father, Dr. Kevin Kearney, was a national- istic who lived in Ireland. Yet, he volunteered — alongside many of his fel- low Irishmen — in the British Army during World War I, enabling Richard Kearney’s educa- tion to be paid by a British Navy pension. Kearney, who returns to Cork, Ireland, for the future. Both aspects are expressed in the multimedia, multimedia and photography, and various mediums, in- cluding painting of pets, clay sculptures, graphic design and charcoal sketches, along with floral readings of each piece created by members of the Beth Shalom Garden Club. The library is at 1139 High St, Needham. Heights, for more information, go to www.needhamarts.com.

Q. What are these materials used for?
A. Making these accommo- dations available is just another way to say we care about you and your goals, and what we’re striving for whatever you need to feel connected and supported. When we come together to build on positive experiences and success, we all win.

For information, call 508-652- 0992 or go to www.aamw.org. Cindy Cantrell may be reached at cindycantrell20@gmail.com.