BOSTON SAENGERFEST MEN'S CHORUS

Boston Saengerfest Men's Chorus, an audition-based 40-60 man chorus, began in 1893 as a medical school singing society and was reborn in 1992, making its debut then at London's Royal Albert Hall in a Welsh Male-Voice Choir festival. Its Welsh tradition has shaped its repertoire of sacred, classical, folk, Broadway, spirituals, and other American forms reflecting the "college glee club" experiences of its members.
